Welcome

You are invited to join the fun!

Kidsfest was started 34 years ago as an information gathering event to highlight children's services and organizations, targeting health, safety and fun, that are available to parents. Although we still put a large emphasis on the services and organizations, Kidsfest has evolved into a hands-on day for both parents and children. The event will include make-and-take crafts, on-going entertainment, live performances, games, food and more. Kidsfest is free to the public, and attracts hundreds of families with children, ages newborn to pre-teen. Over 2,000 people expected to attend.
